Special meeting, June 17,11, 1857

Opened an Encampment of Singhts Templars, at 9, a.M., Sir Daniel Harwood presiding.

The object of this meeting was to celebrate the inaugertion of the Statue of Gen. Warren, on Bunker Hill, by the Bunker Hill Monument association

The Grand Encampment of Massachusetts and Phode Island was desired to do the escort duty for the Masonie Depart ment of the procession, on that interesting occasion. But as no other subordinate body attended duly organized, that duty devolved mainly on the Boston Encampment, and was most admirably

Cwing to the ill health of the Grand Commander, Sir Stright Daniel Harvood, which prevented his performing the arduous labors of the day, Sir Stright John Mc Clellan, Dep. Grand Commonder, had the command of the Grand Encumpment; and sir Stright Winslow Lewis, Generalissimo, the command of the Boston Encampment, wided in the Military Command by Sir Stright Richard Mr. Barker. a Detachment of Sir Strights, worder the command of Sir John St. Stall did the escort duty for the Grand Sodge.

The procession of the day was extensive and imposing; of which, it was thought, the Masonic Division was the most interesting feature.

On leaving Bunker Hill, the Encampment marched to the house of Sir Singher Stimpson and partock of his generous entertainment, after which they returned to the Temple, when it was Resolved That, when this Encampment close, it stand adjourned till the regular meeting in September next.

Closed. Stephen Levell, Recorder, P.J.

After the Encampment was closed, the members, with other sir Anights as invited quests, repaired to Chapman Holl and particle of a splendid collation provided by the committee, on wich occasion Sir Stright Sawis presided in his usual admirable style. It large number of happy speeches were made, by different Sir Strights; und wir and sentiment enlivened the occasion till a late hour.

It was a proud day for Boston Encampinent.

in the 63 year of his age.

The funeral obseques took place at the Warren Street Chapel, where the Rev. Theodore Parker de livered to the Relatives and a larg number of Masonic Brethren, a very secting and well merited Elllogy on the Sift and Chundler of the deceased; after which the remains of "departed worth" were borne to their last resting place, at West Swalum, followed by the members of St. Johns Lodge, St. Sands S. A. Chunter and the Boston Encampment of Snight Whiting had been, for many years, the able and distinguished Recorder.

"Though Dead, He Yet Speaketh"

While love his sacred dust interced,
In that choice shot of ground,
This question to each one occurred_
"Where shall his like be found?"

Of such a man, his life on earth,

Some enlogy conveys:
But words are vain to tell his worth;

So Heaven must speak his praise.

Special Meeting Wednesday evening, July 81, 1857 Grened an Encampment of Strights Templars; in the absence of the Grand Commander, Sir Winslow Lewis presiding.

This meeting being called, on account of the recent death of Sir Sinight Calvin Whiting, Ser Sinight Sewis addressed the Sir Sinights present, as fellows:

We are gathered together this evening to perform the lies particularly soloment to services commemorative of one now lost to us on earth, who while on earth was dear to our souls; in whom were centered the respect and affections of a large community, and of whom we may speak with price as of one who practiced the teachings of our broker in their witest scope; of one who went about doing good; of one who, though feeble and deformed in body, was a Hercules for good, and an apollo in moral beauty, for its the soulther makes the body rich. and, as the Sun breaks through the roughest clouds, so virtue pecreth in the meanest habit."

His course on earth, his ixample, his whole career, his fortitude in temperal adversities, his patient submission to the dispensations of his Father in Heaven who struck down the wife of his earlier years, and removed from his hearth and from him, the promising shildren sodad, his patience under undeserved obloquy, his triumphal exit, all should rise up before us be lessons of emphatic force, be mementoes that the paths of rectitude are the paths of peace; that though the feet may be lacerated in the thorny road, the soul may rise superior to lifes inflictions, and in triumph await its immortality. Calvin Whiling was borninged hain,

October, 8th, 1794. His father was Tisher Whiting, who died when this son was but two years old. Of his early life med character of his boy ish propensties of his characteristies of that formative period, I have not bearned; but as the boy is the indis of the future man, as the twig is bent, so is the tree inclined, we may deduce from the never varying excellence of his riper munhood, that in his opening career all was well with himthat that purity and survity and benevolence were manifested in his young heart, but to be continued, enlarged and extended to the close, when that pure heart beheld its God. He began the active business of life in Shrewsbury, and there are here present several who well knew him then; and as all have known him but to love und respect him, he had the happiness to meet in this asylum some friends of his earlier days, as vouchers, if need there be, that here in the busy Metropolis he was the sume Calvin · Whiting of manners gentle, of affections mild whom they had known in the quietude of the village life; und I feel the strongest assurance, that these who have Thus known him longest, will bear their testimeny, that they have no cause to blush for any derelication of his at any period of their friendship, Forwith him, as with all, in this changing and changable world, there is no life with without its and allby. I do not here refer to those dispensations which attach to all of woman borni where the house is left desolate, and the loved have gone home; but to those turns in fortune's changeful wheel, which not only level to the lowest spoke, but almost crush the victim. He held an important station in one of our mornied institutions, the duties of which he had executed with great fidelity and acceptance; but un fortunately, from a low implicit trust in the soundness and integrity of others, and without any possible or expected benefit to him without the imputation of any intended wrong even at that or any future period, he, by an error of judgment, lost his all of worldly wealth; but never his honor, the freely gave up all he possessed, and even the little and almost sacred keepsakes of his furnily were taken! He was dealt with harshly, and by some especially whose poetic sentiments are much in advance of their benevelent and social qualities. Our friend, without a blemish on his character, lost his place and his property, while so many others enriched by defalations, still go on unwhipped of justice. But he soon found another situation. Goodness cannot be crushed to earth.

He went on, fulfilling station after station, with the increased respect of his fellow citizens; connected with the municipal Institutions—an overseer of the Poer Superintendent of the Society for the prevention of pauperism—which last he held at the time of his death. This was the occation of his heart—to relieve the distressed, soothe the unfortunate, assuage the bitter tear of anguish—this is a high calling, and its duties the greatest pursuit of humanity. Alas! how few are leaders in this glorious undertaking; how very rare are the Howards of this world! How many are termed, hind, whose charities extend not begond their own threshold, and to those commeded with them.

Many; I believe, "There are Who live a life of virtuous decency, Otten, who can hear the Decaloque and feel Ore strict observers; and not negligent
In acts of love to those with whom they dwell,
Their hindred and the children of their blood.

But of the poor man ask, the abject poor,
Go, and demand of him, if there be here,
In this cold abstinence from wil seeds and these inevitable charities,

Wherewith to satisfy the human soul?

No-man is dear to man, for this sole cause,
That we have all of us one human heart."

this enlarged field of philanthopic action, our

In this enlarged field of philanthropic action, our brother labored with efficiency and vigor. That feeble form was found in the abodes of want, in the cellars, the garrets, the lanes, in the bye-paths of wretchedness. How many henew Culvin Whiting, who knew not of his life, his devoted attentions to the poor! How many attended the funeral of this "man of Ross", who were struck by the high entogium of the preacher, and almost for the first time were impressed with the true character of the dead, that the majesty of goodness then lay before them in that itim ministure of greatness obsolete. all that was said of the deceased in thoughts that breathed and words that burned, were noble tributes from a gifted mind. To those I refer you (for they exist in the printed records) for the characteristics of Calvin Whiting, as a citizen, a father, a husband, a man; only reserving the summary of his connexion as a Masonic Brother, as a subject not touched upon in detail elsewhere:

Culvin Whiting received his first Masonie

Degrees at Northboro about the year 1820, the Chapter begrees in St. Paulis, and the Templars in the Boston Encampment, thirteen years since, during which last period, he has been Secretary to St Johns Solge and St. Paulis Chapter, and Recorder of the Encompment and of the Grand Encampment with what signal ability and rare excellence he fulfilled these duties. His chirography was caligraphic, beautiful and accurate. Every record was perfect, every detail minute, and on his dying bed all was brought down almost to his exprising hour. He left most touching mementoes of his accuracy, and concludes on a little slip of paper, thus:

"3 P. M. The brittle thread of life is nearly broken, and all that remains of your Recorder is on its upward, onward, and last earcer."

Every paper or writele was found neutly prepared for his successor, where his dying hand had placed it. and sow these records will bear on their pages, the testimonials which fraternal love and respect will offer to his memory. The sad tribute which he has so often penned for others, will by other hands be bestowed on him. For in him was the embodiment of the Masonic virtues. That charity which never failed, that kindness ever man ifested, that countery and urbanity which warm the giver and the recipient, the heart ever unruffled by according, the hand open as day, the eye bright with affection all these were the jewels of this good Brother. His wide grasp of benevolence embraced all; but to the poor and friendless he was a ministering angel.

In his album of poems, selected and original, I found the series developed that intense sympathy which distinguished him through life. To the question Mo is a Brither? he answers:

He is a brother and a friend,

Who, when our lot is low,

With pleasant words will aid extend,

and wipe the tears that flow.

Comes to the aching broast,

When stronger feet their steps incline,

To make the wreched blest.

If such the pleasure we can give, How cold must be the heart, If only to ourselves we live, Nor kindly words import.

When ever we can, whi let bless
The sad and somewing,
and in the hearts of wretchedness,
Make joy and gladness spring.

We have thus lost one, dear to us, to Masonry, and to Philanthropy. Let us charish the memory of this departed worth, and at our meetings may his gentle spirit hover over us and pour upon our hearts the boliney influence of peace, goodwill and benevolence. Let us call up his name in the festive hour; for he loved pleasantry and delighted to witness jugous hearts. Let us think of him in our sclemen ceremonies, as now partaking of the glories of that immortality then inculcuted. Let us grant his last touching request, penned by his hands:

> From the departed. Friends, I would crave like boon, When laid within death's vaults; Speak of me often, though it be Only to tell my faults. For better that some hearts be tought, Even of my follies, chun of nought.

Uh yest remember me, In gentlemess and love; Let not the chasm be early filled That tracks my last remove. But grant me still that little spot: Friends, dearest friends, forget me not.

Let his voice, though now hushed in death, speak andibly, impressively to our hearts, and although to his Body we have bill a last facewell, may his Spirit, present, as I doubt not, with us now, beekon us onward to that sphere where the wirtuous and just are united, to part no more forever.

Ufter Sir Strigt Sewis had delivered the above, Sir Finigts, Dune, Surse, Flint und others, who had long and intimately known the deceased, addressed the members of the Encampment, in an impressive and feeling manner.

Sir Sinight John St. Hall then offered the following Bream ble und Resolutions; which were ununimously adopted:

Since our last-meeting, our fraternal eincle has been narrowed by the death of a much valued and dearly beloved Brother and Sir Knight, and as our records should testify to the esteem in which we hold the worth and virtues of the deceused, to serve both as a testimonial of the regard of his cotemporaries, und as an incentive to excellence, for those who are to follow, Therefore, Resolved, That the members of the Boston Encampment would hereby express The deep somew they experience in the death of their beloved associate, and their high estimation of the character of the decensed in the happy and oherished relation which has so long bound him to their hearts while in life, and to their memories now that he is no more. They would bear their testimony to his sent and officiency as an officer faithful in the discharge of every duty appertaining to his office and as one whose heart was the seat of every generous impulse and the warmest affections.

Resolved,

That, while we will not attempt to portray his virtues, nor recount the many acts for which our gratitude is due, since the estimate of the services virtue and character of our deceased brother, would be vain and abortive, yet we will ever cherish his memory with a holy affection which time cannot ablition erate; and while a member of our fraternity exists with whom he was associated, so long will the name of Culvin Whiting be cherished in grateful and affectionate remembrance by him.

That, while we pay this just tribute to the memory of our depurted brother, it is fully lessons of wisdom for those who survive. The life of a man like him does not cease with his expiring breath; it lives forever in those affections which his kindness of feeling and warmth of heart have kindled in others, by the incentives to moral excellence and honorable effort, in the universal respect and veneration which attend the less of such a man.

Resolved,

That these resolutions be placed whom the records of our institution, inclosed in black marginal lines, and that a copy be transmitted to his becaused widow, with the assurance of the sympathy of each and every member, with her in her application, which thuse resolves can but feely express, and their fervent prayer, that he who has said "Leave thy fatherless children, Swill preserve them, and let thy widows trust in me, will pour into her wounded heart that balm which he alone can administer, and cause us all to realise that he has only passed on leaking her and holier sphere of happiness and duty,

The following lines were also added by Sir J.K. Hall.

In that Edestial Lodge he has entered above,
Where the Infrance Pluter presides,
By the aid of Judder of Faith Hope and Love,
In with every true Mason confides.

To discharge his whole duty was ever his pride, lell his dreds by the Plumb Line upright; The true Square of virtue his actions will bide, On the Level were all in his sight.

His work thins well done, and pronounced good and true, By the great Overseer in the East, He with loved ones, long mounted, is permitted to view, And partake of that heavenly finst.

Then mourn not for him who, while dwelling below,

Had his thoughts over contered above;

For his lost ones his tears now no longer will flow,

He has joined the last child of his love.

Encomponent be presented to the widow of our decensed brother; and the Treasurer is hereby authorized to pay the same.

Yeted: That Sir Hnights, Duniel Howwood, Winslow Sewis, Gilbert Kinse, and John Flint be a committee to carry the above into effect. Voted: That the thanks of this Encampment be presented to Sir Hnight John St. Hall, for the very handsome and satisfactory manner in which, with his Commund, he performed the Escort and Guard of Honor for the Grand Sodge, on the 17th with, on the occasion of the Inaugeration of the Statue of General Warren.

Resentation

After the Work of the evening was finished, the Sir Knights repaired to the Untersoon and partook of a Collation got up in Sir Knight Martin's best style; at the close of which, as an expression of their ardent attachment to their late Commander, Sir Daniel Harwood, they presented him with a handsome Service of Plate, consisting of a Salver, Pitcher and two Goblets. The Inscription on the Pitcher was as follows:

Six Daniel Herrwood.

from the

e set and a life to his new

Boston Encampment of Knights Templars, Presented, Dec. 16th, 1857,

As a testimonial of their appreciation of his valuable services and of their love and esteem for him who, for a period of seven years, as Most Eminent Grand Commander of Boston Encampment, has won for it the enviable reputation of being the best exemptar of the work of the Order.

In Bunquet Hall, in pleasure's hour,

There thou hast stood in hingly power,

Or at the Shrine, when hushed our glee,

At either seeme, we'll think of thee.

Sir Knight, John W. Hall preseted the articles, with the following speech:

Sir Daniel Harwood,

On Hour returned from the Office of Brang Commanger. of Boston Encampment, an office which you had filled with so much ability, and to the duties of which your time had been so ardently devoted, the Encampe ment felt they could not part with one to whom they were so warmly devoted, and under whose guidance they had arisen to that renown which entraches to Duston Encomponent, without some memorial of him they had so long been most happily connected with. They therefore requested permission to retain your counterfeit presentment; which request was compiled with. But they were also desirous that you might have something to call to mind the many pleasent metings we had enjoyed together; and while we were participating in the gratification of contemplating the likeness of him whom we all delighted to honor, he also might have something to call To mind the happy scenes in which he had participated with us, and which would assure him, that though absent, he was not forgotten. In accordance with that feeling, the Sir thoughts of the Boston Encampment, one and all, unite in tendering to you a testimonial of their affection and regard for you, hoping it may remind you, that your untiring zeal in the eause, and your unwearied exertions for their wellfare, have not been wholly nappreciated by them.

Most Eminent, this is no uncoming extensing, like many of its kind. The appeal to the Sir linights was responded to with such cordial goodwill, as plainty showed the request vibrated in unison with their feelings. There was not a dissentient voice. The act is the embodiment of the feelings of the whole Encampment; who in the course of your administration have seen nothing to condenue, but everything to praise.

Most Eminent, this is not flattery it comes warm from the hearts of all of us, many of whom could have performed this service much more senting, as I do, the Manh and File of the Encampment, from whom this voluntary offering comes, I could not forego the gratification of being the bearer of those sentiments which were so warmly communicated to me.

And now, Most Eminent, in the name of the Sir Vinights of Boston Encampment, I request your acceptance of this testimonial of their love and regard, assuring you that,

In Banquet Hall, in pleasure's hour,

More you have stood in hingly power,

Or at the Shrine, when hushed our glee,
In either scene, we'll think of thee.

To the above, fix trinight Harwood made the following reply:

Sovereign Muster, by your leave_ Sir Knight Hall, and Sir Knights, all,

When, at the clase of my imperfect administration, this Body invited me to sit for a portrait, and in flattering terms expressed a desire to preserve some sketch of my lineaments, that great and entirely unexpected honor was received as a more than sufficient acknowledgement and requitat for any services I had been able to render.

Sudge then, what must be my present deep and embarrassing sense of abligation, while receving from your generous hands this additional_enduring_splendid_evidence of your approbation and good will!

I should be sure to fail in the effort, to express, in any adequate manner, the feelins of indebtedness and gratitude which fill, and are "welling up" from my heart. I will therefore attempt only to say, that it is more than enough— that; in the most earnest and comprehensive sense of the phrase_I thank you_ collectively and individually— for this precious_unmerited testimonial.

And I thank you, Sir Knight Hall, personally, for the kind and affectionale manner, and for the flattering terms in which the gift has been presented. _____ Yould that I could merit a little of your praise.

Sir linights, during the long period through which I had the honor of occupying that chair now so much mere ably and worthly filled it was not always "fair weather". Although within our Assylum off was peaceful and happy, because all were engaged in efforts faithfully to discharge their duties, and were resolved to be satisfied with the best efforts of eachother. From without, there came occasionally over our path, clouds sufficient to dim, to some slight extent, the sunshine of our joys. They were transcent however, and are passed; and Shope are gone forever. And Sallude to them now, only for the purpose of saying, that it affords me unspeakable happiness to know that in those trying points of time, as well as through those lond and jayous years of mutual effort; forbearance and sleady prosperity, my humble exertions are thought sufficient merit, and worthy to receive, the seal of your approbation. For this Shesire to offer my gratitude, where it is most justly due.

In conclusion, let me say, that, as the long official term, to which this grotefull close has been generously vouchsafed, has been one of the happiest and most-pleasing periods of my life; so will the momentoes here placed at my disposal, be cherished as among the highest honors ever bestowed upon, or ever to be expected by, him who has the honor of addressing you.

This intrinsic worth is very considerable, and is by no means overlooked. But, for me, they possess a value ten thousand times_Infinitely_greater than Silver, or Gold, can give them.

It is my prayer, and shall be my future effort, that your geneous, fraternal, linightly conduct, may be abundantly required in the time to come.

This was a very interesting occasion. A large number of Sir Knight's were present; and all seemed highly gratified.

When Wirtue crushed, does not demand,

Norsufferings call for linigitly sword,

He freely pledges heart and hand,

To give Merit its reward;

For he to Freeth will always bow.

The strongest point in linightly vow.

The Committee on Diplomas were granted further time.

3 ____ The Committee appointed to consider the propriety of change ing the mode of ballotting, made the following reports

That the mode of bulletting now practiced in the Loston Encampment, was established by Sicknights who were eminent for their knowledge skill and wisdom in the principles of the Order, and at its first organization. This Encampment was also the first Institution of the kind in America. And your Committee are not aware of any complaints having been made in relation to the made of butletting in this Encampment by the members, and they believe it wiser and better to adhere to ancient usages and customs, rather than in adapt cory measure that may be thought by some of our Sir Knights, to be an improvement upon those rules formed by the founders of the Encampment.

- Sir Knight Lewis, in a feeting manner, offersed the following remarks, and the subsequent Resolution, which was unaimously adopted:

Sir Knights,

The association to which we belong, connects us together by ties of no ordinary force, and so entwines our interests and feelings for each other, that our meetical joys or sorrows, excite reciprocal pleasure or pain. The mingled web of life, must have its dark, as its bright colors, and dread mortality must precede life ever lasting. Thus, the "passing away" must be the path for all; and therefore how often are we as united by their, called on in this our asylum, to amounce that, for enother probations how is passed.

On the night of our solemn ritual, when our hearts are subtued by our sublime ceremonies, we me called on to mourn with one of the most beloved and respected your numbers- one who has been long with us Tand long may be still be spared) and to spress our sincere sympathics for the great becoment which so seeddenly has rendered his house desolate. Suddenly, though not emprepandly, the partner of his joys, the sharer of his dorrows, has been removed, and the home which her presence ever cheered and made happy for over brother and his large and united family, now mound the lass of its best in mate. It is peculiarly appropriate that we should mingle our sympathies on this occasion. Many of us have showed the haspitalities of our brother's fire side; and long should be churched the memory of her whom we have so often met on festive occasions connected with over Traternity, She was emphatically the good Mason's good wife, and one known in our general community, as an notive benefor. tress, ever energetic in the cause of charity and kindness. With such considerations, we tender our brother, our heartfelt requets, and order the following resolution to be placed on our records:

members of Boston Encasinfiment are with our esteemed Brother, Six linight Bradford, in the irreprovable loss he has sustained, by the death, of one who was to him, the most excellent and faithful wife, to his children, the him, the good mother, and to society, an ornament, by deeds which cheesed many who bless her memory, and embalm it in their hearts.

On motion of Six Knight Marshall, it was Voled: That a copy of the above be sent to Six Knight Bradford; which has been done.

Regular meeting Wednesday Eve. Sept. 15" 1858.

Opened a Council of K of the Red Cross

— Sir William Ellison presiding —

Records of the last regular and intervening special meetings were read and approved.

1. Sir John M Chillan produced The petition of Sir Robt Lash, and others to the M. E. Gr. Commander of The In Concampment of Mass. & R. J. for a Dispensation for an Encampment at Chelsea. and moved that this Encampment. consent to the grant of Such a Dispensation. Carried unanimously.

2. Sir Winslow Lewis presented and read a Communication concerning The life and character of Sir DE Geo Mb. Thatcher, accompanied by Resolutions as herein recorded whereupon it was voted the resolutions be addopted and that a copy of The Communication and resolutions be forwarded to the family of the deceased.

Geo McDonough Thatcher. was born in Boston Man 5" 1809 and died June 2º 1858. of a protracted and most painfull. malignant disease and was burried in the tomb of his ancestors at Milton, Funeral services were performed at the Brattle St. Church by the

Ker. Dr Sothrop after which his Masonic associates accompanied his remains as far as Boylston Street. where they parted with him forever more on Earth. Our deceased Brother sprang from an illustrious uncestry (if the best blood is derived from the best virtues) His paternal ancestor in England was the Rev. Leter Thatcher of Old Durum. who was born about the year 1555, and from whom have desended for 14. generations through The eldest sons eminent divines in each who have been The Ecclesiastical pride of New England. He was educated here was in the counting house of an eminent merchant - went five times to the Cast Indies as a Super-Cargo and finally Established himself here until his death He was member of the ancient and Honorable Urtillery Company & of the Order of the Cincinnate, an aid to the Governor of this State + a member of the State Senate — He was Consul to His Danish Majesty for Boston and received from Frederic, VII. of Denmark. The order of the Dannelrog one of the most ancient in Gurope being founded In Freemasonry he received the degrees in Columbian Lodge of which he was Master in 1845. he was one of the petitioners for The Charter of Nevere Lodge of which he was a member at the time of his death. He has also been In Marshall of the Gr. Lodge. He has sustained in The Encampment the important office of Serior Warden and was much attack to our order His characteristics were not striking now has he left the impress of a strongly marked mind or manner, We shall remember him for the mild Exercises of a perfect urbanity, gentlemanly Courtesy. Kindness of heart, friendly devotion housty of prin ciple and action and untainted truth, That which of him was subline and Elevated was not seen of the world, it radiated but at the close of life and shone at the portals of death. He was called to endure the crucification of prolonged agony and marched resignedly to the Crofs under undescribable suffering without a musmur he yielded himself to the great Conqueror. We have enforced in our ritual That -The memory of him who falls in a just and Virtuous Cause shall flourish - This alleedes to the Warrior Subdued in the warfare of buttles Strife amid the Shout and the excitement the applause and the Cheering of witnessing numbers, But there is a halo of more imperishable glory, the memory of which should depart not, when death comes (as it came to him we now lament) with slow, stealthy but sure steps, amed with arrows of the most painful malignity tochering by day harafring through weary nights seizing with its Jangs, Excruciating with its agonies the poor suffering body, Then while the Soul can smile amid the disolation of its Earthly fabric, utter no murmer at the fiat of him "who doeth all things well" though in comprehended and awaiting the insvitable how with composes are, still can say and feel that "it is the Lordlet him do what seemeth to him good", This is The higher, the greater, the impershable glory. Such a warrior has fallen from among us. let his memory therefore be green. Post obit memorials to departed Earthly friendship though they cannot soothe the dull cold ear of death" still they are the tributed by which memory Embalous Sanchifies. and strives to perpetuate the remembance of those qualities which shed a fragrance Even from the tomb We therefore as Brothers would pay our last said testimonial of respect and affection to one who though in body, has gone forever, still we may fondly trust in spirit hovers around us on this Spot. So long the scene of many of his happy associations Therefore Resolved, That the Boston Encampment of Knights Templars, by the dicease of Sie Geo.

M. Thatcher deplore the loss of a member endeared to them and to Society by ties formed from his life of uniform consistency in the practice of those Virtues which bind man to man, with finde, they will remember the Equal tenour of his lifameless life his submission and fortitude at the approach of death, and thust that his example may inspire them to be ever ready to bow to the decree Desolved. That they tender to the family of this deceased associate their Sympathy and condolince on the loss which has taken from thom the kind son, horsbornd, father, and brother. May they derive solace from the remembrance of his virtues, and aformance that all is well with him hereafter and evamore.

Beturn of the Knight Templars from Richmond, Va.,

MAY 24, 1859.

By SIR KT. JNO. K. HALL, Boston Encampment.

Welcome to your homes once more,
Sir Knights, who from our Southern Shore,
Bear back to us what erst of yore,
Bound us both heart and hand.
That friendship which should bind the twain,
Both North and South, in one strong chain,
Unbroken may it e'er remain
Around our native land.

Virginia's greeting, borne by thee,
Shall ever consecrated be,
And in our hearts enshrined will we,
Her memory ever keep.
Our band of brothers, firm and true,
Shall put to shame the trait'rous few,
Who shed disunion's baneful dew,
'Mid graves where patriots sleep.

Old Massachusetts still shall prove,
A worthy son of him we love,
Whose spirit from the Lodge above,
Well pleased that scene might view,
Where North with South stood hand in hand,
Upon that spot of his dear land,
Where he so oft met with our band,
Of brothers tried and true.

And in that name to Masons dear,
Of Washington, may we revere
His virtues, then we need not fear,
But we our land will save.
For heart with heart each other's rights,
Richmond and Boston by true Knights
Shall be upheld, 'till Bunker's heights
Sink in old ocean's wave.

1 - M.E. Si Winelow Lewis in behalf of the Commer appointed at our last meeting offered as a report the following Treamble and Resolutions.

> One more has been added to the Triumphant-numbers of Deaths mighty army, and from us has been removed one of Stalwart frame - of commanding figure, who upheld our Frighthy Standard of Truth and Immor tality as one homself a firm supporter of the first Through an humble though an honorable life and now we may smely trust that he has gamed that immortality which belongs to a well spent life The World erects no Statues to those whose Virtues walk a narrow round - The Still Small Voice" of unothusive Excellence is andible but bumpet tounqued to the few and those few . Erect. Statues in their hearts,

Us a good man & true may we thus long retain in our mories the goodly qualities of our late Brother Sir Noah Butts. who has lately departed from among us after a protracted illness from malignant disease,

It is perhaps the most singular circumstance Connected with the necrology of the members of as ours that the Boston Commandery have within two years lost four of their members, all in the prime of life and assefullness, from malignant disease viz. Sins Seo. Mb. Thatcher, Stephen Lovell, Cyms Buttick, and Noah Butts. Through how much suffering - poignant - acute - unremitting they passed to reach that afsylum where Sorron dwelleth not, language cannot describe. but their God gave them patience to Endure, may we believe, a mansion for their inheritance hereful Now that the Storm of life is passed and our Brother has left his post here to attain and our Brother has left his post here to attain a more Exalted place in the great Commanding of the blessed let us Enrol on our records as our memorial of him the following.

Resolved that the signal fidelity and attachment to this Commandery so long mone if ested by our late excellent Standard Bearer bir But. Noah Butts. deserves and receives from us all that commendation due to a faithfull and most excellent sir Prought.

Resolved that his divotion and attention to his duties as an officer of this order should Excite us all to do likewise

Resolved That his qualities as a mason as a man a father & husband deserve the respect of our memories, & we shall cherish the recolection of our late Brother with respect & tenduness

Resolved That his family share our deepest sympathy & that we condole with them in this their quat bereavment, and we trust that they may find con-- Solation in the belief that their deceased husband and fathir has left to them the Example of an active honest well spent life,

	Voted to accept the report and place it on records and that of our Commandery. Si James Mayo announced the reception of a package for Richmond Commandery It was ordered to be produced, and on being opened amid the profoundest, Silence and almost painful curiosity there was revealed to our peering Eyes. a beautifull black Walnut case Enclosing a magnificient Service of Selver. Exquisitly wrought and Suitably Engraved which your. Knightly Courtisy laid upon our altars.

We cannot forbear to speak of their appropriate con-- Ception, Costliness and imposing appearance. a work completed agreeably to the designs of the Wisdom, Shength & Beauty that Characturises all your undertakings

In this testimonial you have extravagantly illustrated That while the Physical Temperature of the north may be pigid and congealing. Masony, under Lodo, at least has infused into your hearts as much generous sympathy and noble impulse as ever characterised Mantind,

Your Compliment to Nichmond Commandery for the reception of your Butheren of De Molay Encampment in May last we can hardly conceive as merrited, and assure you that any indebtedness. received is more than Shared by your Virginia Brethoren in the Sincere pleasure of their Entertainment. and esteem it a sufficient reward for our humble Effort to have any evidence of your appreciation of them, or to be regarded as in any way contributing to the illustration of the principles of our institution We truly reciprocate your pleasure at the forming of a "link of priendship never to rust or be broken" and reacho as a watchwords in our Conneils Mo Masons a Dixons line" to limit the Exercise of Masonie Virtues or hinder by

Most Eminent Grand Commander and Sie Krughts of Boston Encampment, No heart can more more truly and feelingly Supress thanks for Kindness shown That that one which is writhing under sorrow which can only be Known to him who Experiences it, such a heart is his who now tries to acknowledge in as suitable langue = age as he can commands The Brughtly Courtesay & Kind Consideration which prompted your recent liberal donation. By an inscrutable act of our Sovereign Commander in Heaven I have Experienced as bereavement which has brought desolation to my heart and home, I am not what I was, one of the dearest ties of Earth has been severed and I am left lonely and Sad. The sickness of my Companion for quite two years. her recent dencise and burial with the nuneerous alludout Expenses had placed me in a situation that compelled me to seek the afoy--lume of the brotherhood to ask their aid to raise from the dust to which he had been stricken by grief, Sorrow and need, one of their number who feels his own inworthiness and the entire absence of any claime upon your liberality; When I pay I thank you for this act of timoness believe me that my Stricken heart feels much more than those words have power to Express Make Known to the Sie Brights, Most Emminent, my gratefull actinowledgements assureing those that

Their act. will be consecrated to Sacred remembrance during my semaining pilgrimage on Earth.

That the Great Sourcign of all may long spare you the painfull suffering of partire; those dearest of Earthly ties, and in your hours of grief and Sorrow pools into your wounded heart that consolation which which the World can neither give nor take away is the sincere prayer of your afflicted brother

Address and Resolutions by In Winslow Lowis on occasion of Death of Sir Joseph Hall.
Sir Brights -

There is a satisfaction of no ordinary degree tinged though it must be with regreti and deep sorrow that our companionship on Earth has Ended, when we are called on record the lass of a friend Endeared to us and to all connected with him by characteristics. noble, by excellencies large and heart felt by all.

With Emotions of Sadness thus tempend by grateful recolections of worth The Boston Encamp= ment would strew their Chaplet of fond remembrance on the grave of one recently removed, from a long and must usefule Earthly pilgrimage, whose memory we shall always Cherish no one who adorned our order and all the relations of life he was called to sustain.

The How Joseph Hall , late a Sir Fright of this Encampament died at the residence of his son in law our Bro. Sir Shat Chas B. F. Adams of this City on the 31st all. The last day of the year-month & week aged 66 yrs closing his life with the departing year he Entered upon that eternity when years are no longer mombered be was born in Methuese, maps. went in 1809 to Camden Me where with brief Exceptions he Ever after resided at a home made distinguished by Eminent hospitality and a delightfull family circle. - He has sustained the offices of bol" Shireff " and Postmaster at Camden. Representative in Congress for two Sessions being the

for the Port of Boston, & Measure in the firstom House be Sustained in all these relations on inimpearling integrity over distinguished for gentlemant, Courtesy but over firm to the principles he through life Exponsed Of him as a member of our order we cannot Speak too highly. — for thirty years a Mason he was a most ardent & attached love of its principles as well as a follower of its practices - He who can attain this as a just tribute to his life, needs no further Eulogian

The was a member of Columbian Lodge, St. Panls Chapter & This Encampment, and was a very constant attendant on its meetings

There was ne gloom hung round his dying bed no forebodenys from a reproachful life. — but chered by an impallining trust. — Surrounded by the affectionate wife, loved and Venerating Children and dear priends he calmly passed away beyond earthly privations or suffering, Immanuel his passwood Heaven his Assylum. —

Ites olved in John death severs forever the ties which have united in friendship the depased with ourselves, when we no more on saith can Enjoy the Companion ship from which we have derived so much of Social happiness, when the lost one has left the impress of many virtues on our hearts. Even then we can still feel that the Separated in the flesh, the Spiritual loftier influences remain - They Stimulate to duty, the last sad tribute has still its melancholy satis - faction that the pen can record the post obit of departed worth

That this Exeampment can Thus record their sorrow for the great loss they have experienced by the death of their late afrociate Sin Int. Joseph. Hall whose Eminent private and public worth reflected honor on the institutions with which he was connected whose Courteousness as a gentleman and whose warmth of heart secured the affectionate regards of all who Isnew frim,

Resolvedo

30- That in tendering our regrets to the family of our deceased Bro Die Stright, for the irreparable loss they have sustained and our sympathies in their affliction, we can also rejoice with them, that full of years & full of honors, the affectionate husband & reversed father, has as we firmly trust, assended to the bosom of his Father & fair Godo.

The old generation of our order is fast passing away - how few the number of those who are spand to witness its present prosperity. - how fewer state those who can still come among us to help aid and afsist. Where are the Companions of our early days! Echo can reply only, where. - but faith points to happier skies.

This little band, mere remnants of Themselves, have been rendered less by the recent diparture of one who at the age of 80 has gone to be numbered with the good and the true

Sir William Parker died after a long ando painfull illness. Feby 3° inst, he died leaving

The odour of a good name among the general Community and of a firm loyal & unwavering Character us a Sir Fut of our order - Those of us now so few to bear testimony of his worth, can well recall his manly devotion to his vows, when so many were recreant - his Trindness of heart - his benevolence of Doul, his genial face, his social hospitable char--acteristics when we have met him tottering under the load of age, but more under the inflictions of a wearing torturing disease, how his Countinance would radiate when the older joyons days were recalled - for the moment age & Suffering were forgotten - "He shouldered his crutch and told how wars were won" But he is now fallen before the great Conqueror Death. - In life he has well fought the fight of Faith and has come off more than Conqueror through Him in whom he put his trust. A tribute to his memory should grace our records, Now dedd the pen should there inscribe Those virtues which through life were by our hearts Ever felt and acknowledged. Therefore, Resolved That this Encampment shall Ever hold in dear remembrance The many virtues which through a long and usefull life distinguished om late excellent Bro. Si St. W. Parker.

Resolved. That those of his Cotemporary associates who best knew his worth his zeal his Excellence as a man & Sir Kt. would now bear their testimony That he fulfilled Every high duty imposed on him as a member of our order.

Resolved. That the younger Sir Frights of this En-= campment, stimulated by the Example of one who though unknown to them in life, has transmitted to them a bright example will Thus be unged Ever to press onward in their high Vocation in which they are here inlisteds.

Resolved - That his family, Sharers of his affection in life - of his precious mesnory in death, be tendered the Dincere Lympathies which affect us all, at the loss of one who as a husband father friend and associate well fulfilled

De Molay Encampment of Knights Templars. Boston 22 Feby A.L. 5860

To The Officers & Members of the Boston Encampment

Dear Brothers. We have to acknowledge your communication giving us formal notice of the action of your Body towards The Brughts of Virginia together with Copies of your letter to them and their response

The duty of preparing a Suitable acknowledgement has been assigned to the Connect of this Encampment, who Confess that they find the task as deficult as it is agreable.

In the generous Exercise of those noble principles of brotherly love which have ever distinguished the leading Encamponent of Smight Templars in this city you have displayed Wisdom in aiding to allay sectional distrust. Strength in showing that in union there is safety and far more beauty in the moral associations of the occasion, Than is found in the splendid tokens of your paternal regard, beautiful & appropriate as they are your assurance that you recognise in the interchange of courtesies between Citizens of Sister States. Something more important than more social Enjoyment and we are proud to recognise in the Kind hospitality which welcomed no home and your generous gift to our Hosts in Richmonds proofs of your regards.

We beg to assure you that these unexpected acts of fraternal Courtesy give rise to the same emotions in our hearts with which a deserving Child Receives Commendation from a beloved parent.

With the highest respect and regard we subscribe ourselves personally and officially in the bonds of Knightly Brotherhood Mours.

The Committee appointed to free pare Resolutions expressive of the Lewtiments of the Members of Boston Encampinent on the decease of Sir Knights Doseph Barnard and Hilliam W. Cafren made the following Report, through their Chairman Sir Knight A. A Dame, — That Sir Knight Streph Barnard was born in February A.D. 1809 in the town of Bedford, State of New Hampshire, Hoe

A.D. 1809 in the torn of Bedford, State of new Haufishire, He came to this City when about 17 years of age and served an apprenticeship at the carpenters trade, He worked here as a journeymon carpenter about one year, when he went to nantucket and was there employed about a year at his trade, after which he ment on a Whating Voyage as Carpenter and Steers man, the Voyage lasting the and one half years, On his return to Mantucket, he came to Borton and Entered the employ of his brother John in, Bamard in the distilling business, remaining about two years, and then engaged in the same business, on his own account in the mosth part of this City, where he remained for about the years, when he formed a Copartnership with his brothers John M, and David Barnard in the Same business which was continued until Eighteen hundred fifty three when the copartnership was dissolved and he removed his business, though not his residence, to the City of new York, when he continued conducting a very successfull turines until his sudden death in that bity on the twelvth day of December last, The disease of which he died was "Congestion of the Lungs," and the Telegraph which brought to his family notice of his ellness at the same time conveyed to thew the new of his death, He was married in 1838, and has left a wife and and five Children, He was made a mason in Mount Lebanon Lodge in this City in 1845, and received the degrees in It. Pauls Chapter in 1846, and in May of that year was admitted a member; and in December of that year was Elected Treasurer and reflected the following year, and then declined a rediction, but continued his membership,

Continued his Membership, Six Knight Barnard received the Orders of Knight hood in this Encamprenent in the Fall of 1846 and was admitted a menteer December 16th, of the Same

Mutil he removed his business to Heir York he was constant in his attendance at the meetings of the Encampment and has always manifisted a firm and devoted attachment to the Masonic Institution, In his business relations, he was capable intelligent, energetic and touthful, no one doubted his stord and therefore he always received the regard and esteem of all those with whom he had business ransactions, In his family, he was awaffectionate and kind husband, a good father and a sincere and true friend, Hes has been removed in the midst of his day of his usefulness, His midow and Children have Dustained a great loss and This Institution has cause to regret the death of a member whom character and Conduct while living gane the most satisfactory evidence of the purity of his motives and the sincerity of his intentions, Merefore Resolved that the 13Mon accompanient in the decease of Sir Knight Striph Bamard, has lot a member, who was truly & sincerely devoted to the Masonic Institution, one who was ever ready audusting to releive the Wants & necessities of his masonic buth rest when found worthy and deserving, and that me tender to his midor and family the sympathy and regret of the members of the Boston Encamponent in this their hour of affliction and sorrow,

Is I'm Knight Hilliam H. Capso was born an Boston in 1822 and Educated in the Public Schools of this City and afferments became a Clerk in a Wholesale Show Store, where he continued several years. He ment to California about server years since and done business there a little more than one year when he returned to this Cety and established a wholesale Commission Show House, having a branch home in St. Louis with a partner resident there, He was a person of strick integrity, generous impulses and a warm heart and a most sincere and reliable friend, the was possessed of a good business capacity and had the confidence and regard not only of all those with whom he had business transactions, but also of all who truly knew him, Manachusetts Lodge about six years since and Chapter Degrees in St. Andrews Chapter about three years ago and the Orders in Boston Encampment in January and February 1809, and was admitted a member march 16. of that year, At the time of his death he was an active and zealous member of all there Institutions as also of the Boston Council of Royal & Select Masters.

__ He has left a Widow, but no Children, She is in Comfortable circumstances _Sir Knight Capew knowing the uncertainty attending all mercantile business took the miss precaution of thining Insurance on his Life for Six Thousand Dollars, for the benefit of his mife, _ No member of our Order excelled him in his devotion and attachment to the Institution, and he was always to be found at its communications unless absent from the City, and was ever ready to help, aid and anit a worthy Dir Knight by his Council and his purse, when and wherever he was satisfied that his necessities required it, _ Therefore resolved That by the decease of Six Knight William W. Capen the Boston Encampment has been definived of the services of one of their most useful, Caluable and active members, one who enjoyed the regard and esteem of every member who had the priviledge of his acquaintance, and that we deeply sympathise with his midor in her bereavement, and tender to her the assurance of our most sincere and kindly regard, b_ The M. E. Grand Commander affronted, Sir En A. It hete to Lerve on the Committee, on the applications of Companions Fisher Locks & Brooks for the orders, in place of Sir Knight Case who declined on account of business engagements.

4	M.E. Six Knight Lewis offered the following Bramble and Resolutions, on the decean of Sir Knight amo Lyon which were unanimonsly adopted,
	- One of the very few of those who were members of Mis Body, at a previod when but few were found faithful and persistant in Frightly allegiance; suice our last meeting
	- Si Amos Lyon died at Washington Willage on the 21stilust, closing a long life marked by integrity and goodness and was witered at newton, The funeral service of the Episcopal Church was conducted by our venerable and Rev. 13. 13 aury, only in few Knights Newplar mere in attendance, as no extended motice could be given of his death.
	- He framed the action presid of his life at Newton, a flaper manufacturer-with others, engaged also in the same business, he united himself with this Encampment, They were all strick adherents to their masonic obligations, and all mere respected members of Society, Siv. Knight Lyon was an Officer of Meridian Lodge, at that time Established in Newton Falls but since transferred to Natick,
	- Mis advanced age, and the distance from us presented his attendance here for many years, but his heart ever ching to the duties and the pleasures of his earlier days, and his request was that some of the Order would attend his remains on their last earthly journey, and lay them where they are Though not nor a member of this Encampment, stile in recognition of his devotion to us when such devotion
1.	was almost peritous, me would inscribe on our records
	the following resolutions

	Resolved,
	That by the death of the venerable die Ht. amas Lyon Masony has lost one of its bust adherents, of the older time, and the Boston Encampment a zealous member as the most critical period of its existance,
	Resolved_
	- That his purity of life and conduct his steadfastness in the cause of Fruth and high principle, his mouthy direction to right, even when opposed by might, these shall be the memories of our departed Brother, and excite to the equal performance of every duty,

4 _ The S. M. affired the following remarks and Resolutions on the decrase of our late Sir Knight Levi P. Thompson,____

It again breames my duty to announce to you Officially another vacancy in the ranks of our Encampount, Sir Knight Livi P Thompson, who though with us but a short time had made many warm friends, for he was a true and upright mason and an archit and warm member of our Encampount, He was admitted a munber in Sept. 18ho, and was but a short provide with us, when his hateriotic heart with true Knightly valor, beating warmly for his Country in asspanse to her call, he left his family and friends to go where daty and honor called him, During his absence in the service of his country, a devoted wife was taken from him by death last mamints: his strict and unorworded attention to duty to attend his last mamints: his strict and unorworded attention to duty brought upon him a figure, which resulted in his death, at Merbern h.C. in the 34th, year of his age; taken thus in the frime of life and in the midst of a mobile cureer of honor and patriotism which hid once to framotion and which would have pluesed his name still higher whom the rall of frame, he has sutered that Asylum where the Pilgrin Warrior finds aret from his labor, It's remains were defeasited, in the Countary at Mr. Androw, by his military friends and the Sir Knights of Button Encampoint on Similary friends and the Sir Knights of Button Encampoint on Sinday the 3th inst. fullowed by always delegation from It was a member, and deligations from the reighboring Ladges,—

As a sleight memorial of our regard for his memory

Resalved, That we have received with somer, the intelligence of the death of Sir Knight Levi F. Thompson, whose futriotic feelings and love of country, called him, like a true Ringht to draw his. Sword in her defence and to fall under the glavious branes and of the Stars & Stripes,

I submit the following resolutions,

Alsolved. That while me may be allowed to mingle our sarrows and sympathiese with his family and firinds in this bereavenumt, me may also be chesred by the belief which was so commestly expressed by a young lady during the funeral serman over his remains. Capt Thompson has surly gone to heaven, whether he was co member of the preacher's church or not for he died in the service of his country," and me firmly believe,

He has gone to that distant spirit land,
Where the sorrows of life are unknown,
To enlist in that heavenly union band;
Which surrounds his Sather's throne,

With a Knighty 2sal at his country's call,
The buckled his armor on,
With a firm resolve in her cause to fall,
Or return with the orreaths he had now,

Then leave him to rest in his narrow bed, Where friendship has hallowed the sod; For now in that numerous army above, He about the commands of his lad,

Resolved That these resolutions be spread upon our re-Cards, inclased in black marginal lines, and that any Bumers be draped in Suitable Emblems of mourning from this event.

In Gration, Vated, that the resolutions be adopted and that a capy be sent to the family of the deceased,

The Committee affirmed to naminate Officers for the Ensing year made the following Report,

That they have attended to their duty and have given to the subject all the attention it descrues, and they are unanimonoly of the afunion that mither the Darmony or Efficiency of the Encompany, will be promoted by any change at this time, in its elective of ficers,

They therefore nominate four re-electron the present incombents

The Committee venture to bring before the Die Knights a consideration which has met their in fulfilling their duty. The Encampment already large is steadily increasing in numbers, There cannot be a doubt but that it contains abundant material, for the proper and cretitable carrying on of its work, and it seems to them a very proper question for your consideration, whether any of its officers, with purhaps the exception of Prelate, Measurer and Recorder ought to be filled more than one year by the same incumbent, The Committee submit, whether, if this change was made or undustood more interest would not be taken in learning the work and more life and energy be in. parted to the whole body It seems as though incouragement would be given to those who fill the minor offices, and those who guard without the walls, would feel that if faithful, advancement within might be their remard to make any suggestions whom this point, but they con-tent themselves with simply bringing the subject to your notice at a time which seems most opportune for the purpose, They respectfully ask the acceptance of this Report so far as it relates to the nomination of Officers.
